RUFFIANLY RIOT IN A RESTAURANT

Squad of Police and a Score of Waiters Came to the Rescue of Freshmen Who Had Been Attacked by Sophomores.

PHILADELPHIA, PA.—Special.—After they adopted tactics employed by students in Russia, a squad of police and a score of waiters last night completely routed one hundred and fifty members of the sophomore class of the University of Pennsylvania, who attempted to break up a freshman's banquet at Kugler's restaurant. A score of students arrested, half a hundred with cut heads and bruised bodies, and $600 worth of damaged glassware and china are the results of the fray.

For days the sophomores have declared they would kidnap Henry H. Murser, president of the freshmen class, and break up the dinner. Last night, after the freshmen had gathered in the restaurant, the sophomores divided their forces into three parties, and at a given signal simultaneous entrance was effected. The party took their lives in their hands by dropping to the restaurant roof from windows of the Land Title building. A second group entered by the rear fire escape, and a third by the regular entrance.

Once in the banquet room, they rushed the freshmen, and then a scene of the wildest disorder occurred. Tables laden with glass and silverware were overturned and many heads were punched, eyes blackened, and dinner coats torn to shreds.

The manager of the restaurant sent a riot call to the City Hall, and a squad of police, mounted and on foot, sopha, soup clubs where resistance was offered. Men white as ghosts, and one of the restaurant employes had blood upon his shirt as he watch the fight. The police formed a line and charged the students down a flight of stairs, crowded they ran a gauntlet of blows and kicks from the waiters on the first street, was routed. Some of them, clung desperately to the policemen, and some had their hands bitten. The riot lasted half an hour.

BALTIMORE SWEPT BY A $500,000 FIRE

Four Firemen Are Killed and Greatest Loss of Property Is Suffered Since the Great Fire of 1904.

BALTIMORE, MD.—Special.—Four firemen were killed and twenty-one injured by falling walls early this morning in the fire which swept the city's business district, causing a loss estimated at more than $500,000.

At Holliday and Saratoga Streets is a building occupied by the J. Reiff Tiles' Company, plumbers' supplies dealers, and adjoining, the 1124 Hotel, and fanned by the fierce gale from the northwest, was soon a seething furnace.

Working on the roofs and upper floors of the building, while they fought the flames in sheets on their very backs, the firemen fought the flames which shot forth from every window of the building. Long before there was any thought of danger the roof of the building had been so weakened that the wall on the Eutaw Street side fell out, burying in its ruins the firemen who were plying their apparatus below.

The dead: Lieutenant Frederick Harman, William H. Pugh, and two unidentified men.

When the crackling sound of the falling walls was heard, and the cry of danger was given, Chief Horton at once shouted the order to get out of the building, and to the safety of the street. Almost all, however, were caught in the debris, and many were badly crushed by the shower of bricks.

Others were of the burned building, including Engineer Hall, of the Baltimore Fell and Crane Company, Foreman Hoffman, of the Baltimore Enerich, machinists; E. B. Reed & Company, machinists, and Lodge and & Shriver, grocers. The house of the latter was also destroyed by fire.

Catching from a hand in the burning building, the flames of the fire took fire. While the flames raged fiercest, explosions of fuses and gas were hurrying from the ancest many buildings, adding to the terror of safety

SHERIFFS ORGANIZE TO CHARGE OF JOBS

Meet in Richmond Pursuant to Call to Look After Legislation Affecting Fees.

RICHMOND, VA.—Special.—In response to a call issued by sheriff Gregory of Roanoke, sheriff Sergeant Mitchell, of this city, sheriff Curtis, of Hampton, and other sheriffs and sergeants from practically every county in the State, will go to Richmond this evening, where they will hold a meeting and perfect an organization. With their organization perfected the sheriffs will go before the Legislature Committee on Counties, Towns and Cities and ask that their pay for the maintenance of prisoners be increased in proportion to the increase in the cost of supplies since the present allowance was put into effect. A bill providing for the increase has already been introduced into the Legislature by Judge Mann, and this bill will be supported as a unit by the officers.

The maximum fee for the keep of prisoners now per day is now 75 cents, while the actual cost is $1.25. It is stated that since the allowance was made the cost of provisions has increased at least $5 per cent. Several members of the committee have expressed themselves favorably to the provisions of the Mann bill.

The sheriffs state that the contemplated organization has nothing to do with any opposition to Judge Mann. Withers bill providing for changes in the road works of counties.

What Can Be Accomplished by Judicious Saving

¶The change wrought with you may not be so great as in the accompanying illustration, but our system of "Pay by Mail" will undoubtedly better your financial condition. ¶That this system is available is fully demonstrated by the thousands of accounts now carried with this institution by visitors over the entire country. Incidentally, take this fact into consideration: During the financial stringency, this Bank met every demand of its depositors, paying out currency whenever desired and issuing absolutely no script whatsoever—something hundreds of banking institutions in our larger and smaller Southern cities failed to do.

¶ Your inquiries are cheerfully invited and answered. Accounts received from one dollar upwards, bearing three per cent., compounded semi-annually, from date of deposit. ¶ Booklet "I" upon request.

RHEA'S ENEMY MADE CHARGE OF BRIBE

Publication in Newspaper in Southwest Came Near Bringing on a Duel.

DOUBTS AS TO HIS FITNE

Believed That Republicans Ha Little Hope of Actually Provin Charges, But Will Hope to Create Reasonable Doubt of Appointee's Qualifications for Commission.

RICHMOND, VA.—Special.—G. W. Hammitt, who is supported by Noel as a witness against Judge Rhea, is a Republican, and a supporter of the Slemp regime, though he was one of Rhea's supporters the Congressional campaigns.

So far as is known, the bribe charge in connection with the Jones-Hunter case has never been made here on the stump, though it was once intimated by Gregory, a Black, a political enemy, in a newspaper editorial. This came near resulting in a duel, and Black retracted.

Judge Rhea's friends say that the scandalous story will not count against him. They are against it regardless of politics, however, some of the stand he took in the recent local option contest.

Judge Rhea is a prominent churchman of Bristol, an officer in the original Presbyterian Church, a regular attendant, and a faithful Sunday-school worker, and has been for years.

It is pretty safe to say that there is not a single Republican in the legislature who sincerely believes that the charges launched against Judge Rhea by William Francis Rhea will be sustained.

And yet the whole delegation—except Senator Noel—and practically the whole Southwest Virginia contingent—seems confident that the evidence will be strong enough to convince him will create grave doubt as to his fitness for the bench.

What is more, the Republicans insist that their movement still have the sympathy of scores of Ninth District Democrats. Indeed, it is not going to be surprising if what they expect to help in their fight from certain members of the dominant party. Certain it is that the list of witnesses prepared by Senator Noel includes many Democrats—people supposed to be more or less familiar with his political record.

HELD FOR PASSING FRAUDULENT CHECKS

RICHMOND, VA.—Special.—E. B. Smith, the young Tennessean arrested here last week as a suspicious character, had three warrants sworn against him charging him with passing fraudulent checks.

The first of these charges was brought by Proctor Murphy, hotel keeper, who charges that Smith passed a check for $10 on him. Further said that he had not originated the measure, but had introduced it at the request of Dr. W. W. Smith, of Lynchburg, chairman of the Southern Railway System of Colleges, and chairman of the Interdenominational Sunday Observance Society in Virginia. The bill, he understood, was prepared by the society, after consultation with the presidents of the railroads operating in this State, and the passage of it being urged with all the eloquence and force of the Interdenominational Society and of the railroad officials in the State.

Senator Stroode said he was in favor of the bill, but that he would not be afraid to vote against it. He
